ONE BOOK

RAWLINS LIBRARY

Rawlins Library has chosen Don't Look Back, written by South Dakota author Achut Deng, as the 2024 Adult Book of the Year. In this novel you will find the true meaning of strength and courage as you follow Deng's journey to America.

DON'T LOOK BACK BY ACHUT DENG AND KEELY HUTTON

I want life.

After a deadly attack in South Sudan left six-year-old Achut Deng without a family, she lived in refugee camps for ten years, until a refugee relocation program gave her the opportunity to move to the United States. When asked why she should be given a chance to leave the camp, Achut simply told the interviewer: "I want life." But the chance at starting a new life in a new country came with a different set of challenges. Some of them equally deadly. Taught by the strong women in her life not to look back, Achut kept moving forward, overcoming one obstacle after another, facing each day with hope and faith in her future. Yet, just as Achut began to think of the US as her home, a tie to her old life resurfaced, and for the first time, she had no choice but to remember her past.

signing!

THURSDAY,
SEPT. 26,
6:00 P.M.
RAWLINS LIBRARY

Achut Deng will discuss her book, Don't Look Back, at Rawlins Library. Copies of her book will be available for purchase, and an author signing will take place.

To register, please call 605-773-7421, visit the Rawlins Library front desk, or scan the QR code on this flyer. This is a free event open to everyone.

"Southern Sudanese Deng's remarkable life story is one of loss and survival . . . The combined experience and talents of Hutton and Deng result in crisp, clear writing that is eminently readable. Deng's voice rings authentically through the telling, her resilient spirit eclipsing the grueling trials she was forced to endure. Though Deng's grandmother once told her to never look back, readers will thank Deng for disobeying her and sharing her moving, powerful story."
